CORAM: V.G.PALSHIKAR &
D.B.BHOSALE, JJ.

DATED: 12TH SEPTEMBER, 2005

P.C.:

. By these petitions the petitioner-society has challenged the action of respondent no.6 - school in admitting non tribal students in school which is basically made for the tribal students. The reason for challenge being the strength of students in the petitioner-society is decreasing. The only person who can make the grievance of non tribal students is the tribal students but such complaint is not forthcoming from any tribal students. No right is infringed by this action. The writ petition is, therefore, dismissed.
